STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY OF DISCOVERY MATERIAL

Whereas, the parties, through their respective counsel, have met and conferred and have stipulated that certain discovery and disclosure of information in this Action shall be treated as confidential according to the terms and conditions of this Order. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

SCOPE

1. This Order shall apply to all information and things exchanged by any party, including, but not limited to, all documents and things produced in the course of discovery, all answers to interrogatories, all answers to requests for admission, all responses to requests for production of documents and things, and all deposition testimony and deposition exhibits, and any other papers produced, filed, generated or served by a party in this litigation ("Discovery Material").

DESIGNATION

2. Any Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as “CONFIDENTIAL” or as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with this Order. The burden of establishing that Discovery Material is CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL as defined herein shall be on the Producing Party. The designation of any Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall be deemed effective unless and until the Court orders otherwise or the Producing Party withdraws the designation.

3. Discovery Material falling into one or more of the following categories may be designated as CONFIDENTIAL: (i) sensitive technical information that is not publicly available and that is not expressly contained in public information; and (ii) sensitive business or financial information that is not publicly available and that is not expressly contained in public information.

4. Discovery Material falling into one or more of the following categories may be designated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL: (i) proprietary research and development and/or highly sensitive technical information that is not publicly available; (ii) highly sensitive business-related financial or commercial information that is not publicly available and that is not expressly contained in public information; (iii) trade secrets; and (iv) unpublished patent applications and patent prosecution documents that are not available upon request from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or any other patent office.

5. The Producing Party may designate documents or other Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by placing either of the following legends or similar legends on the document or thing: CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER. In the event that CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material is produced for inspection at a party's facility, such CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material may be produced for inspection before being marked confidential. Once specific CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material has been designated for copying, any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material will then be marked confidential after copying but before delivery to the Receiving Party. There will be no waiver of confidentiality by the inspection of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material before it is copied and marked confidential pursuant to this Order.

6. Any party or non-party may designate discovery requests or responses (and the information contained therein) as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by placing either of the following legends or similar legends on the face of any such document:

“Contains CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose CONFIDENTIAL information is included;” or

“Contains HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information is included.”

In the case of discovery requests or responses, a statement may also be included within the document specifying the portion(s) thereof designated as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.

7. Any party or non-party may designate depositions and other testimony (including exhibits) as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by stating on the record at the time the testimony is given that the entire testimony or portions thereof shall be designated as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL, or designate as such within twenty-one (21) calendar days after receipt of the transcript. If no such designation is made on the record at the time of the testimony, the testimony will be treated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL up until the twenty-one (21) day period for designation has expired. The following legends or similar legends shall be placed on the front of any deposition transcript (and, if videotaped, any copies of the videotape) containing CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information:

“Contains CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose CONFIDENTIAL information is included;” or

“Contains HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information is included.”

8. Subject to any overriding rules imposed by the Court in this Action, all CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material, or any excerpt, reproduction or paraphrase thereof, filed with the Court shall be filed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which the following shall be endorsed: (i) the caption of this Action; (ii) the words “CONFIDENTIAL – Restricted Access According to Court Order” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – Restricted Access According to Court Order” as an indication of the nature of the content; and (iii) a statement in substantially the following form:

“This envelope, containing documents which are filed in this case by (name of party), is not to be opened or the contents thereof to be displayed or revealed except by Order of Court or consent of the parties.”

The Clerk of Court is directed to maintain under seal all material filed in this Action which has been marked or designated, in whole or in part, as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and filed in accordance with this Paragraph. The sealed material shall not be opened or released from the custody of the Clerk of Court except by order of the Court and except that outside counsel of record for any party may have access thereto by request to the Clerk of Court at any time during Court hours.

USE

9. Any and all material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties or counsel for the parties or any persons identified in Paragraphs 12-16 below for any purposes whatsoever other than preparing for and conducting this Action (including appeals).

10. Except as provided in Paragraphs 12-16 below, counsel for the parties shall keep all material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and received under this Order secure within their exclusive possession and shall take reasonable efforts to place such documents in a secure area.

11. All copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries, or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as "copies") of material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order or any portion thereof, shall be immediately affixed with the words "CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" if those words do not already appear.

DISCLOSURE

12. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or authorized in writing by the Producing Party, any person who has been provided access to any HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material produced by the Producing Party or to any information derived from HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material produced by the Producing Party shall not thereafter (for a period of one year after the conclusion of this case) participate in Patent Prosecution, as defined below, for the Receiving Party. For purposes of this Order, Patent Prosecution shall be defined as preparing, drafting, reviewing, filing, or responding to office actions, signing oaths or declarations, or prosecuting in any pending or future patent application, or assisting in any of those activities, with respect to any patent application disclosing or claiming (in whole or in part) the subject matter of: (a) any of the patents asserted in the current litigation and (b) any of the parents (grand-parents or other predecessor applications in the chain) of any of the patents asserted in the current litigation. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or authorized in writing by the Producing Party, any person who has been provided access to any HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material produced by the Producing Party or to any information derived from HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material produced by the Producing Party shall not thereafter (for a period of two years after the conclusion of this case) participate in Continuation Patent Prosecution, as defined below, for the Receiving Party. For purposes of this Order, Continuation Patent Prosecution shall be defined as preparing, drafting, reviewing, filing, or responding to office actions, signing oaths or declarations, or prosecuting in any pending or future patent application, or assisting in any of those activities, with respect to any continuations, continuations-in-part, divisionals, foreign counterparts, reissues, or re-examinations of any of the patents asserted in the current litigation or any of the parents (grand-parents or other predecessor applications) thereof, including: (i) applications based on U.S. Patent No. 5,553,852 including, but not limited to, Reissue Application Nos. 11/111,974 and 10/183,147; (ii) applications based on U.S. Patent No. 6,634,961 including, but not limited to, Application Nos. 10/635,603, 10/635,610, 11/042,481, and 11/042,482; and (iii) applications based on U.S. Patent No. 6,780,125 including, but not limited to, Application Nos. 09/511,898, 09/764,139, and 09/764,307. Nothing in this Order shall preclude any person who has been provided access to any HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material produced by the Producing Party or to any information derived from HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material produced by the Producing Party from reviewing issued patents and their file histories.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS

13. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or authorized in writing by the Producing Party, Discovery Material designated as CONFIDENTIAL may be disclosed by the Receiving Party only to the following persons:

- a. any "outside" attorney of record in this Action (including attorneys employed by firms of record but not otherwise identified specifically on pleadings);
- b. no more than two (2) "in-house" attorneys of a party who are responsible for assisting or overseeing this Action or two (2) persons employed by a party in its legal or intellectual property department and who are responsible for assisting or overseeing this Action;
- c. support personnel for attorneys listed in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) above, including law clerks, analysts, paralegals, secretaries, and clerical staff employed by any attorney identified in sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) and assisting in connection with this Action;
- d. any outside expert or consultant who is expressly retained or sought to be retained by any attorney described in sub-paragraph (a) to assist in the preparation of this Action for trial, with disclosure only to the extent necessary to perform such work and subject to the requirements of Paragraphs 15-16 below;
- e. no more than two (2) officers of each Receiving Party, provided that they receive only derived summaries of CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material for the sole and exclusive purpose of evaluating litigation strategy;
- f. any interpreter, or court or other shorthand reporter, videographer or typist translating, recording or transcribing testimony;

g. service contractors (such as document copy services), jury consultants and graphic artists;

h. any person who authored and/or was an identified original recipient of the particular CONFIDENTIAL material sought to be disclosed to that person, or any deponent when the examining attorney has a good faith basis to believe the deponent is aware of the particular CONFIDENTIAL material sought to be disclosed;

i. personnel of the Court and all appropriate courts of appellate jurisdiction; and

j. any other person agreed to by the Producing Party in writing. CONFIDENTIAL material shall not be disclosed to persons described in Paragraphs 13 (b), (d), (e) or (j) unless and until such person has executed the affidavit in the form attached as Exhibit A.

DISCLOSURE OF HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS

14. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or authorized in writing by the Producing Party, Discovery Material designated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL may be disclosed by the Receiving Party only to the following persons:

a. any "outside" attorney of record in this Action (including attorneys employed by firms of record but not otherwise identified specifically on pleadings);

b. support personnel for attorneys listed in sub-paragraph (a) above, including law clerks, analysts, paralegals, secretaries, and clerical staff employed by any outside attorney identified in sub-paragraphs (a) and assisting in connection with this Action;

c. any outside expert or consultant who is expressly retained or sought to be retained by any attorney described in sub-paragraph (a) to assist in the preparation of this Action for trial, with disclosure only to the extent necessary to perform such work and subject to the requirements of Paragraphs 15-16 below;

d. any interpreter, or court or other shorthand reporter, videographer or typist translating, recording or transcribing testimony;

e. service contractors (such as document copy services), jury consultants and graphic artists;

f. any person who authored and/or was an identified original recipient of the particular HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material sought to be disclosed to that person, or any deponent when the examining attorney has a good faith basis to believe the deponent is the author and/or was an identified original recipient of the particular HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material sought to be disclosed to that deponent;

g. personnel of the Court and all appropriate courts of appellate jurisdiction; and

h. any other person agreed to by the Producing Party in writing. HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material shall not be disclosed to persons described in Paragraphs 14(c) or (h) unless and until such person has executed the affidavit in the form attached as Exhibit A.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL OR HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL TO AN INDEPENDENT EXPERT

15. Before any disclosure of material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order is made to an expert pursuant to Paragraphs 13(d) and 14(c) by the Receiving Party, outside counsel for the Receiving Party shall: provide the expert with a copy of this Order; explain its terms; and obtain the expert's written agreement, in the form of Attachment A hereto, to comply with and be bound by its terms.

16. No CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material shall be shown to an expert pursuant to Paragraphs 13(d) and 14(c) until ten (10) calendar days after said expert is identified in writing, and a current biographical sketch and a written commitment in the form of Attachment A is provided, to the Producing Party. The biographical sketch shall include a curriculum vitae or equivalent resume setting forth such person's present residence and business address(es), current employer and job title, any company or companies by which that individual was employed during the past four (4) years, and a list of all consulting agreements or arrangements that said individual may have entered into during the past four (4) years that involved or related to golf balls or the manufacture of golf balls. The list should disclose the name and address of each such entity for which consulting work is being, or has been, performed, and the general subject matter of that consulting work. If disclosure of either the identity of the entity for which the work is being performed or the subject matter of that work, or both, is deemed proprietary by the Receiving Party, then the fact that certain information is being withheld on the basis that it is proprietary shall be disclosed by the Receiving Party, and any such information that is not deemed proprietary shall be disclosed. In the event that said individual enters into any subsequent consulting agreements or arrangements, the Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Producing Party of such agreements or arrangements. A party's consent to permitting disclosure of its confidential information by a retained expert of the other party shall not be unreasonably withheld. If a party objects, within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of written notice, biographical sketch and written commitment, to such expert having access to any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material, the expert shall be barred from such access for a twenty (20) calendar day period running from the date the expert was identified in writing to the Producing Party (together with the expert's biographical sketch and written commitment). If within that twenty (20) calendar day period (1) the parties are unable to resolve their differences and (2) the opposing party moves for a further protective order, then the CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material shall not be provided to said expert until the Court rules on the motion for further protective order.

INADVERTENT PRODUCTION / DESIGNATION

17. The inadvertent production of documents subject to the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work-product doctrine will not waive the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work-product doctrine. In addition, the fact that a document was inadvertently produced shall not be used in any manner as evidence in support of any such alleged waiver. Upon a request from a party that has inadvertently produced any document which it believes may be subject to the attorney-client privilege or attorney work-product doctrine, each party receiving said document shall return it and all copies within three (3) business days to the Producing Party. Nothing herein shall prevent the Receiving Party from preparing a record for its own use containing the date, author, address(es), and topic of the document and such other information as is reasonably necessary to identify the document and describe its nature to the Court in any motion to compel production of the document. Such a record of the identity and nature of a document may not be used for any purpose other than preparation of a motion to compel in this Action. After the return of the document(s), the Receiving Party may challenge the Producing Party's claim(s) of privilege or work-product by making a motion to the Court.

18. Inadvertent disclosure of material without designating the same as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall not be deemed a waiver of confidentiality with regard to similar or related information, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of confidentiality with regard to the information inadvertently disclosed if promptly called to the attention of counsel for the Receiving Party who shall make every effort to retrieve the inadvertently disclosed information and prevent disclosure by each unauthorized recipient. If information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with this Order is inadvertently disclosed to a person not authorized by this Order, the party who becomes aware of the disclosure shall immediately inform the other party of all pertinent facts relating to such disclosure and shall make every effort to retrieve the inadvertently disclosed information and prevent disclosure by each unauthorized recipient. The Receiving Party shall take reasonable steps to, at the Producing Party's option, either ensure that all copies of any such Discovery Materials are returned promptly to the Producing Party or ensure that all copies of any such Discovery Materials are marked with the proper designation and distributed only as permitted under this Order.

PARTY SEEKING GREATER PROTECTION MUST OBTAIN FURTHER ORDER

19. No information may be withheld from discovery on the ground that the material to be disclosed requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless the party claiming a need for greater protection moves for an order providing such special protection pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

CHALLENGING DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

20. Any party through its counsel may assert that particular information designated by the other party as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL is in fact publicly known or is otherwise not CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and hence should not be subject to the designated protection hereunder. Such assertion, if made, will be discussed between counsel. If agreement cannot be reached, the designation of confidentiality in dispute may be challenged upon motion and the confidentiality of the information shall be maintained unless the Court orders otherwise. The burden of proving the confidentiality of designated information remains with the party asserting such confidentiality.

21. The restrictions placed by this Order on a Receiving Party shall not apply to any information that, in its entirety:

a. is at the time of disclosure hereunder, or thereafter becomes, a part of the public domain through no act or omission by the Receiving Party, its counsel or its employees;

b. is subsequently independently developed by the Receiving Party;

c. is lawfully in the possession of a person who is not subject to an obligation to maintain it in confidence; and/or

d. is hereafter lawfully disclosed to the Receiving Party by a third party which did not acquire the information under an obligation of confidentiality from or through the Producing Party.

THIRD-PARTY DISCOVERY MATERIALS

22. It is expressly contemplated and agreed that the terms of this Order are applicable to CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material submitted by a non-party, and/or produced by a non-party in connection with this Action, and that the parties will treat all CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material of a non-party in accordance with the terms of this Order.

USE IN COURTROOM PROCEEDINGS

23. Any information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL hereunder and produced to another party during discovery herein, if otherwise admissible, may be offered in evidence or otherwise used at the trial of this case, by either party, subject to such further order as the Court may enter to protect such information.

RETURN / DESTRUCTION OF MATERIALS

24. Within sixty (60) calendar days of the conclusion of the above-captioned case (including all appeals), all material treated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order and not received in evidence shall be returned to the Producing Party, except that each parties' outside counsel may maintain all papers filed with the Court, transcripts of testimony and their own memoranda containing confidential information for archival purposes. The party receiving any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material shall certify in writing that all such material, including CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material disclosed hereunder, has been returned or destroyed. The Clerk of the Court may return to counsel for the parties, or destroy, any sealed material at the end of the litigation, including any appeals.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

25. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed a waiver of any party's rights, if any, to oppose production of any information or documents, for example, because of lack of timeliness, relevance or materiality, because the party asserts an obligation not to disclose information received from third parties, and/or because privileged or work product information is sought.

26. Prompt written notice shall be given to any party who produced CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material hereunder, in the event that party's CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material is sought by any person not a party to this litigation, by subpoena in another action, or by service with any legal process. Any person seeking such CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material who takes action to enforce such subpoena or other legal process shall be apprised of this Order. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring anyone covered by this Order to contest a subpoena or other process, to appeal any order requiring productions of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material covered by this Order, or to subject itself to penalties for noncompliance with any legal process or order.

27. This Order may be changed only by the written agreement of the parties or further order of the Court, and is without prejudice to the rights of a party to seek relief from or variation of any of its provisions.

28. Subject to Paragraphs 26 and 27 above, the remaining provisions of this Order, including the obligations to maintain confidentiality embodied herein, shall survive the termination of this Action and continue in full force and effect.

29. Nothing in this Order shall bar or otherwise restrict counsel from rendering advice to his or her client with respect to the above-captioned case (including all appeals) and, in the course thereof, relying in a general way upon his or her examination of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material produced or exchanged in this Action; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and in otherwise communicating with his or her client, the attorney shall not disclose the contents of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material produced by any other party or non-party.

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, certain documents and information have been and may be produced or exhibited in the above-styled proceeding (the "Proceeding") which contain the parties' or third parties' trade secrets, or other confidential and proprietary, scientific, technical, financial, strategic, business planning, business arrangement, competitive, research, development, or other kinds of commercially sensitive information within the meaning of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(7);

WHEREAS, the parties, through their respective counsel, have agreed that a Stipulated Protective Order preserving the confidentiality of certain documents and information should be entered by the United States District Court for the District of Delaware; and

WHEREAS, the parties have established good cause for entry of this Stipulated Protective Order;

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL AND ORDER OF THE COURT THAT:

1. Any party or third-party may designate as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” all or any part of any discovery and other materials produced and/or served by the parties or third parties, or filed with the Court, including without limitation, documents and things, pleadings, motions, interrogatory answers, testimony adduced at depositions, and responses to requests for admission, which contain sensitive financial, patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, marketing, customer, research, manufacture, regulatory, commercial, business, strategic, or product development information, or any other confidential technical or non-technical information or know-how of such a nature as to be protectable under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(7).

2. Confidential information and Highly Confidential information, including all information derived therefrom, and all copies, summaries, abstracts, excerpts, indices, and descriptions of such material shall be held in confidence by the receiving party, shall be used only by persons permitted access to it under this Protective Order, and shall not be used for any purpose other than in connection with this Proceeding, defined herein as the above-captioned action, any appeal therefrom, and remands thereto. Confidential information and Highly Confidential information shall not be used for any research, development, manufacture, patent filing or prosecution, financial purpose, commercial purpose, marketing purpose, business purpose, regulatory purpose, Citizen’s Petitions, lawsuits against the FDA, any other litigation or other competitive purpose except as required by law.

Designation Procedure

3. Designation of a document or thing as Confidential information or Highly Confidential information by the party or third-party producing it shall be made by stamping it with the legend “CONFIDENTIAL,” “CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” as reasonably appropriate when it is produced to the party seeking discovery. Anything that cannot be so marked on its face shall be marked by placing the appropriate legend on a container or package in which the thing is produced or on a tag attached thereto. Each page of each document and each thing produced pursuant to discovery in this action shall bear an identifying number. Any response to written interrogatories or requests for admission or any testimony adduced at a deposition upon written questions that constitutes or contains Confidential or Highly Confidential information shall be labeled or marked with the legend “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” as appropriate by the party providing the response or testimony on the first page of that document near the caption when the response or testimony is served upon the party seeking discovery. Another label with the appropriate legend shall be set forth at the beginning of every discovery response that specifically contains Confidential or Highly Confidential information, so that responses that do not contain Confidential or Highly Confidential information are not subject to this Order.

The designation of material as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” by the producing party constitutes the representation of that party that it reasonably and in good faith believes that the designated material constitutes or discloses sensitive financial, patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, marketing, customer, research, manufacture, regulatory, commercial, business, product development information, or any other confidential technical or non-technical information or know-how within the meaning of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(7).

As used herein, “Highly Confidential” material shall be limited (1) to highly sensitive business information relating to licensing, projected future sales, pricing, business strategies, business arrangements, volumes, revenues, costs or profits for venlafaxine hydrochloride extended release products, (2) information concerning non-venlafaxine products, or (3) sensitive business information of third parties. The designation of "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" by the producing party constitutes the representation of that party that it reasonably and in good faith believes that the designated material constitutes or discloses highly sensitive licensing, projected future sales, pricing, business strategy, business arrangement, volume, revenue, cost, or profit information for venlafaxine hydrochloride extended release products, information concerning non-venlafaxine products or (3) sensitive business information of a third-party.

In designating material as Highly Confidential, the third-party must identify by production number in writing any documents previously provided to any of the parties outside of the present Proceeding. Such documents may be disclosed to the in-house counsel listed in Paragraph 9(b) who are employed by the party previously having access to those documents.

Documents and things produced without a legend designating the material Confidential or Highly Confidential shall not be subject to this Protective Order unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court, or otherwise designated Confidential or Highly Confidential in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 4 and 19-20 of this Protective Order.

4. Any material provided for inspection in this Proceeding is to be treated by the receiving party as Highly Confidential information pending the copying and delivery of any copies of the same by the producing party to the receiving party. After copies are delivered to the receiving party, the information in such documents or things will be treated consistent with any legend produced on each document or thing. Inspection of documents or things by any party shall be conducted by outside counsel eligible under paragraph 6 below.

5. Deposition testimony taken in connection with this Proceeding temporarily will be designated as Confidential information for up to thirty (30) calendar days from both parties' receipt of a transcript of the deposition, and the parties agree to mark the first page of the deposition transcript with the legend "CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" in accord with this temporary designation. Within thirty (30) calendar days of such receipt, parties or third parties must designate as Confidential or Highly Confidential specific testimony, by transcript line and page number, in writing and deliver the designations, if any, to the parties, whereupon each party shall attach a copy of such written designation to the face of the transcript and each copy thereof in that party's possession, custody, or control. Otherwise the parties may treat the testimony as no longer subject to this Order. A deponent may review the transcript of his or her deposition at any time.

In the event that testimony adduced at a deposition contains or constitutes Highly Confidential information, counsel for the designating party shall indicate at the deposition which specific pages (or portions of pages) of the deposition transcripts contain Highly Confidential information. The parties agree to mark the first page of the deposition transcript with the legend "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL -- SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER at page[s] ____" until such designation is superseded by the designations provided in writing within thirty (30) days of the transcript's receipt by the parties. That legend, however, will apply during the interim thirty (30) day period only to the specific pages (or portions of pages) that have been so designated. To the extent a party wishes to provide a copy of the transcript during the interim thirty (30) day period to in-house counsel in Paragraph 9(b), counsel for that party will serve a copy of the same, with redactions of the Highly Confidential designations made on the record during the deposition, to the opposing party's counsel. The opposing party will have five (5) court days from the receipt to provide additional designations of Highly Confidential information that must be redacted from the copy of the transcript prior to it being provided to in-house counsel in Paragraph 9(b).

Access to Confidential Information

6. Highly Confidential information may be disclosed only to the following Qualified Persons:

a. outside counsel retained by the receiving party as counsel for this Proceeding (defined as attorneys from the following firms who have or are working on the present litigation):

Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner, L.L.P.;
Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell; Heller Ehrman LLP; and Morris, James, Hitchens & Williams LLP

provided that any such attorney (i) is not currently involved in the preparation or prosecution of patents in the technology area of extended release formulations of venlafaxine, and (ii) agrees not to be involved in the preparation or prosecution of patents in the technology area of extended release formulations of venlafaxine for (1) year after the conclusion of this Proceeding; in addition, subject to the restrictions of the outside counsel set forth in this paragraph, the paralegals, assistants, and employees of the respective law firms of such outside counsel to the extent such persons' duties and responsibilities require access to material designated Highly Confidential or Confidential and have an express agreement with their respective law firms to maintain the confidentiality of their work. Nothing in this paragraph precludes the above-identified outside counsel for Wyeth or Impax from participation in other litigation or inter partes proceedings involving extended release venlafaxine where the proceeding does not allow for the amendment or addition of patent claims;

b. independent litigation support service personnel, litigation consultants, outside exhibit preparation companies, or litigation study groups retained by a party for litigation support with whom such outside counsel work in connection with this Proceeding to the extent such persons have an express agreement with outside counsel to maintain the confidentiality of their work, and provided that such personnel are regularly engaged in the provision of such services, and are not engaged in the research, development, manufacture, marketing, or sale of pharmaceutical products;

c. any independent outside consultant or expert to the parties that is assisting outside counsel, is not a current employee of any of the parties in the litigation, and is in compliance with the requirements of paragraphs 7 and 8 herein;

d. the Court and any members of its staff to whom it is necessary to disclose Highly Confidential or Confidential information for the purpose of assisting the Court in this Proceeding and stenographic employees, court reporters and typists for the sole purpose of recording, or transcribing testimony, documents or information relating to this Proceeding;

e. interpreters and translators for the sole purpose of recording, transcribing or translating testimony or documents relating to this Proceeding;

f. any person who prepared a particular document or thing, who is listed on the document as a sender or recipient of the document, or who otherwise had access to or knowledge of the Highly Confidential or Confidential information disclosed in the particular document or thing, but the disclosure shall be limited to the specific Highly Confidential or Confidential information disclosed in the particular document or thing;

g. any present officer, director, or employee of the party or third-party who produced the Highly Confidential or Confidential information;

h. any person to whom the producing party or third-party agrees Highly Confidential or Confidential information may be disclosed; and

i. outside copying services.

If counsel wish to disclose material designated Highly Confidential or Confidential to the persons described in subparagraphs 6(b), (e), or (i) above, counsel shall first obtain a signed Certification in the form of the annexed Exhibit A. The Certification shall be signed by the company, firm, or group, or solo practitioner retained by the party, and a single Certification by the company, firm, group, or solo practitioner shall be sufficient to cover all employees or other individuals paid by the company, firm, or group. Counsel retaining the persons described in subparagraphs 6(b), (e), or (i) shall retain the original of each such signed Certification. Service of the Certification shall not be required.

7. A party desiring to disclose another party's Highly Confidential or Confidential information to any outside consultant or expert under paragraph 6(c) before any disclosure shall :

a. provide to such person a copy of this Order, which he or she shall read and upon reading shall sign a Certification in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A;

b. obtain from such person a copy of such person's Certification, a resume (curriculum vitae), and the following information, (i) a list of companies for whom such person has consulted in any capacity within the last year, (ii) a list of any other cases in which such person has testified as an expert at trial or by deposition within the preceding four (4) years; and a list of all publications authored by such person within the preceding ten (10) years;

c. for every such person, serve (by hand delivery, courier, e-mail, or facsimile transmission) a copy of said Certification, resume (curriculum vitae) and information described in 7(b) upon counsel for the producing party.

8. Upon receipt of a Certification and resume (curriculum vitae) and information described in 7(b) of an outside consultant or expert, the producing party shall then have ten (10) court days to serve (by hand delivery, same day courier, e-mail, or facsimile transmission) a written objection to the proposed disclosure of its Highly Confidential and/or Confidential information, which shall state with specificity the reason(s) for such objection. If counsel for the producing party objects within ten (10) court days, there shall be no disclosure to such consultant or expert except by further order of the Court pursuant to a motion brought by the producing party within seven (7) court days of the service of the objection. On any motion brought pursuant to this paragraph, the producing party shall bear the burden of showing why disclosure to that consultant or expert should be precluded. Failure to timely object and to timely file a motion with the Court operates as a waiver of the objection by the producing party and the consultant or expert will be a Qualified Person with access to the producing party's Highly Confidential or Confidential information.

9. Confidential information may be disclosed only to the following Qualified Persons:

- a. any of the persons entitled to receive Highly Confidential information identified above in Paragraph 6, and;
- b. up to four (4) persons employed by each party as its respective in-house counsel consisting of:

For Wyeth:

- (1) Susan Lee, Esq., and
- (2) Lawrence Alaburda, Esq.;

For Impax:

- (1) Margaret M. Snowden, Esq.; and
- (2) Victor Song, Esq.

as well as any secretarial and clerical employee of each party who works regularly with such in-house counsel, provided that each of the above-named attorneys and any such secretarial and clerical employee (i) is not currently involved in the preparation or prosecution of patents in the technology area of extended release formulations of venlafaxine, and (ii) agrees not to be involved in the preparation or prosecution of patents in the technology area of extended release formulations of venlafaxine for one (1) year after the conclusion of this Proceeding, and (iii) after exposure to another parties' confidential information under this protective order until one (1) year after the conclusion of this Proceeding, agrees not to partake in competitive decisionmaking – i.e., advice and participation in any or all of the party's decisions (pricing, sales, marketing, product design, and regulatory, such as communications with the FDA, etc.) regarding that party's extended release venlafaxine products – made in light of similar or corresponding confidential information about another party who has produced confidential information under this protective order, with the exception of decisions made in furtherance of the conduct or settlement of this Proceeding. Nothing in this paragraph precludes the above-identified in-house counsel for Wyeth or Impax from participation in other litigation or inter partes proceedings involving extended release venlafaxine where the proceeding does not allow for the amendment or addition of patent claims. Confidential Information may be disclosed to such a person for the sole purpose of assisting in this Proceeding after such person has received this Order, and delivered to the other party through their outside counsel a signed Certification in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B. It is expressly understood between the parties that the number of such persons may be increased by unanimous agreement of the parties to this action without leave of the Court, or upon a showing, subject to the approval of the Court, by either party that such modification is necessary.

10. Only Qualified Persons, the deponent, and his or her attorney (if any), shall be allowed to attend any portion of a deposition in which Highly Confidential or Confidential information is used or elicited from the deponent. Counsel for the designating party may also request that all persons other than the witness, the court reporter, those individuals specified in paragraph 6, and counsel for the witness (if a third-party witness) leave the deposition room during any portion of a deposition which inquires into matters deemed Highly Confidential by the designating party. Counsel for the designating party may also request that all persons other than the witness, the court reporter, those individuals specified in paragraphs 6 and 9, and counsel for the witness (if a third-party witness) leave the deposition room during any portion of a deposition which inquires into matters deemed Confidential by the designating party. The failure of individuals other than those specified in the previous two sentences to leave the deposition room during any portion of the deposition which inquires into matters deemed Highly Confidential or Confidential by the designating party shall constitute justification for counsel to instruct the witness that he or she shall not answer the question[s] posed.

11. This Order shall not limit a party's examination, at a deposition, hearing, or at trial, of persons who are not authorized to receive Highly Confidential or Confidential information under the terms of this Order, so long as such examination concerns Highly Confidential or Confidential information that the witness authored, received, or previously had access to or knowledge of, as demonstrated by the Highly Confidential or Confidential information itself or by foundation testimony during a deposition, hearing or trial. This Order shall not prevent counsel from examining a witness in a good-faith effort to determine whether he or she authored, received, or previously had access to or knowledge of Highly Confidential or Confidential information.

12. Nothing shall prevent disclosure beyond the terms of this Order if the party designating the material as Highly Confidential or Confidential consents in writing to such disclosure, or if the Court, after reasonable written notice to all affected parties, orders such disclosure.

13. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude any party from using its own Highly Confidential or Confidential information in any manner it sees fit, without prior consent of any party or the Court.

14. Notwithstanding such designation, Highly Confidential or Confidential information does not include information obtained independent of this Proceeding as to which no obligation of confidentiality applies. Accordingly, nothing in this Order shall prevent any person, including a Qualified Person, from making use of any information that is designated Highly Confidential or Confidential if such information:

- a. was lawfully in his or her possession prior to receipt under the provisions of this Order;
- b. was or becomes available to the public through no fault of a receiving party; or
- c. was or is obtained from a source not under an obligation of secrecy to the producing party.

15. Nothing in this Order shall restrict any party's counsel from rendering advice to its clients with respect to this Proceeding and, in the course thereof, relying upon Highly Confidential information (outside counsel) or Confidential information (outside or in-house counsel), provided that in rendering such advice, counsel shall not disclose any other party's Highly Confidential or Confidential information other than in a manner provided for in this Order.

16. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a party or third-party from redacting from documents or things, which otherwise contain relevant discoverable information, any Highly Confidential or Confidential information that is irrelevant to this Proceeding or otherwise not discoverable pursuant Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b).

Challenging Designation of Confidential Information

17. A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a Highly Confidential or Confidential information designation (or re-designation) at the time the designation is made, and a failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. The acceptance of receipt by the non-producing party of material designated Highly Confidential or Confidential shall not constitute an admission or concession, or permit an inference that such material is, in fact, Highly Confidential or Confidential. In the event that a party disagrees at any time with a Highly Confidential or Confidential designation made by another party or a third-party, the following procedure shall be used:

(a) The party seeking such removal shall serve the producing party or third-party written notice thereof (by hand delivery, courier, e-mail, or facsimile transmission), specifying the documents, things, or information for which such removal is sought and the reasons for the request. The producing party or third-party shall have ten (10) court days after service of the notice within which to object in writing to the removal of protection afforded by this Order and specifying why protection under this Order is appropriate. Failure to object within the requisite time limit is deemed a waiver of any claim to protection for that specific document, thing, or information designated as Highly Confidential or Confidential information under this Order.

(b) If, after service of the objection and conferring in good faith, the parties, or the party and third-party, cannot reach agreement concerning the matter, then the party seeking the removal of protection for the designated Highly Confidential or Confidential information shall file and serve a motion with the Court; and the designated material shall continue to be treated as Highly Confidential or Confidential information until the issue is resolved by Order of this Court or by agreement of the parties or the party and third-party.

(c) On any motions arising out of the designation of any material as Highly Confidential or Confidential information under this Order, the burden of justifying the designation shall lie with the producing party or third-party.

Inadvertent Production/Use of Confidential Information and Changes in Designation

18. Inadvertent production of any document or information without a designation of Highly Confidential or Confidential information will not be deemed to waive a later claim as to its confidential nature or stop the producing party from designating said document or information as Highly Confidential or Confidential information at a later date.

19. Any producing party may change a designation to Highly Confidential or Confidential information (or withdraw a designation) regarding any material that it has produced, provided, however, that such change in designation shall be effective only as of the date of such change. Such change in designation (or withdrawal) shall be accomplished by notifying counsel for each party in writing of such change in designation (or withdrawal). Upon receipt of any such written change in designation counsel of record shall: (i) not make any further disclosure or communication of such newly designated material except as provided for in this Order; (ii) take reasonable steps to notify any persons known to have possession of any material with the original designation of the effect of such a change in designation under this Order; and (iii) promptly retrieve all copies and transcriptions of such originally designated material from any persons known to have possession of any such originally designated material who are not Qualified Persons under paragraphs 6 or 9 above in light of the change of designation to the extent practicable. Properly marked documents shall be promptly provided by the producing party of any such newly designated material.

20. Under no circumstances shall a party change or remove the designation of Highly Confidential or Confidential information, or object to such change or removal, to vex or harass another party.

21. If Highly Confidential or Confidential information is used inadvertently during depositions in contravention of other provisions of this Order, it shall not lose its confidential status through such use, and counsel shall exercise their best efforts and take all steps reasonably required to protect its confidentiality during such use. If Highly Confidential or Confidential information is inadvertently disclosed to a deposition witness, and the witness has testified concerning that information, the witness may be examined and cross-examined with respect to the document(s) or information disclosed for the remainder of the deposition.

22. If Highly Confidential or Confidential information is disclosed to any person other than in the manner authorized by this Order, the party responsible for the disclosure shall within five (5) court days of learning of such disclosure inform the producing party of all pertinent facts relating to such disclosure and shall use reasonable efforts to obtain the prompt return of any such Highly Confidential or Confidential information and to bind each unauthorized person or party who received such information to the terms of this Protective Order by providing a copy of this Protective Order to such unauthorized person or party and requesting such unauthorized person or party to sign the Certification attached hereto as Exhibit A. The requirements set forth in this Paragraph shall not prevent the producing party from applying to the Court for further or additional relief.

Inadvertent Production/Use of Privileged Information

23. If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work product immunity or other legal privilege protecting information from discovery is inadvertently produced in any way, such production shall not prejudice or otherwise constitute a waiver (subject matter or otherwise) of, or estoppel as to, any claim of privilege, work product immunity, or other ground for withholding production to which the producing party or other person otherwise would be entitled. If a written claim of inadvertent production is made by a producing party to a receiving party pursuant to this paragraph with respect to information or a document supplied to a receiving party, upon the receiving party's receipt of such written notification of the producing party's discovery of inadvertent production of such information or document, the receiving party shall:

(a) not make any further copies or other reproductions or transcriptions of the inadvertently disclosed information or document; and

(b) destroy or return to the supplying party every original and every copy, reproduction, or transcription of all such inadvertently produced information or documents possessed by the receiving party and by those persons to whom the receiving party may have disclosed such information.

However, recognizing the need for the parties to prepare for their cases based on the discovery that is produced, if any information, document, or tangible thing is used in a court hearing, deposition, as an exhibit to a motion, is referenced in an expert report or pretrial order, or is otherwise used openly in the case, any claim of inadvertent production must be made within ten (10) court days after such use.

Party's Disclosure of Highly Confidential or Confidential Information of Third-Parties or Pursuant To Subpoena

24. A party may temporarily withhold production of otherwise discoverable information sought in a discovery request (e.g., interrogatory, request for production, request for admission) if the party is under an obligation to a third-party not to disclose such information. In such an event, except for information subject to a protective order or confidentiality order by another court, such party shall:

(a) timely serve a written objection to the production of the information in question on the basis of its obligation to a third-party not to disclose such information;

(b) promptly provide to the third-party whose confidentiality interests are implicated (i) notice of the pending request to disclose the information in question, and (ii) a copy of this Protective Order;

(c) within thirty (30) days of serving its response to the request for the discoverable information or entry of this Protective Order (whichever occurs later), designate it as Highly Confidential or Confidential information and produce it in compliance with this Order, unless that third-party or the party, within the thirty (30) days of the party serving its response to the request, moves for or obtains from this Court a protective order precluding such production. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent a party from withholding information beyond the thirty (30) days based on its timely asserted written objection other than any non-disclosure obligation to a third-party, or during the pendency of a motion to compel seeking to resolve these other written objections. The withholding of the information on bases other than an obligation of non-disclosure to a third-party shall not extend the aforementioned period by which the party or third-party must seek a protective order specifically with respect to the non-disclosure obligation to the third-party.

25. Any party that is served with a subpoena or other notice compelling the production of any Highly Confidential or Confidential information produced by the other party or a third-party is obligated to give prompt telephonic and written notice (by hand delivery, courier or facsimile transmission) to that original producing party of such subpoena or other notice. In any event, such notice shall be given within five (5) court days of service of the subpoena or other notice. If the original producing party takes steps to oppose the subpoena, then the party served with the subpoena shall not disclose the pertinent information until the Court has resolved the issue. Absent Court order, production or disclosure shall not be made before notice is given to the original producing party and the original producing party has had at least ten (10) court days to react after receiving such notice. Upon receiving such notice, the original producing party shall bear the burden to oppose, if it deems appropriate, the subpoena on grounds of confidentiality.

Use of Highly Confidential or Confidential Information in Filings and in Open Court

26. Nothing herein shall be construed to affect in any manner the admissibility at trial or any other proceeding of any document, testimony, or other evidence.

27. The Clerk of the Court is directed to maintain under seal any pleading, motion, brief, memorandum, exhibit, affidavit, declaration, transcript, response to a discovery request, or other paper filed with the Court that has been designated, in whole or in part, as containing or revealing Highly Confidential or Confidential information.

28. In the event that a party wishes to use any Highly Confidential or Confidential information in any pleading, motion, brief, memorandum, exhibit, affidavit, declaration, transcript, response to a discovery request, or other paper filed with the Court, such paper shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate container. The sealed envelope or other appropriate container shall:

- (a) show the caption of this action;
- (b) identify its contents; and
- (c) include the following legend:

[HIGHLY] CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION PURSUANT TO STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER: This envelope [or container] is sealed pursuant to court order and contains [highly] confidential information. The contents of this envelope must not be shown to any person except as authorized by the Stipulated Protective Order in this action.

29. To the extent that a receiving party (or a witness called by a receiving party) contemplates using Highly Confidential or Confidential information, which was produced by another party, at trial or a hearing in open court, the receiving party shall have the obligation to provide notice (either in writing or in open court) to the producing party of its intent. The producing party shall have an opportunity to respond to that notice before any of its Highly Confidential or Confidential information may be used by any other party at trial or a hearing in open court.

Disposition of Confidential Materials upon Conclusion of Proceeding

30. Upon the conclusion of this Proceeding, at the written request and option of the producing party, all Highly Confidential or Confidential information and any and all copies and transcriptions thereof, shall be destroyed or returned within ninety (90) calendar days to the producing party, provided, however, that outside counsel may retain all documents and things that contain or reflect their attorney work product (e.g., notes, memoranda, drafts of pleadings, deposition summaries, document review summaries, documents reviewed in preparation for depositions, hearings, or trial whether introduced or not), all correspondence, all pleadings, all deposition transcripts, all expert reports, all deposition, hearing and trial exhibits, and all court-filed documents even though they contain Highly Confidential or Confidential information, but such retained work product and documents shall remain subject to the terms of this Order. Accordingly, upon final termination of this action, no one other than outside counsel shall retain any information designated Highly Confidential or Confidential obtained in the course of this Proceeding. At the written request of the producing party, any person or entity having received recordings, notes, memoranda, summaries or other written materials, and all copies thereof, relating to or containing its Highly Confidential or Confidential information shall deliver to the producing party a declaration confirming that reasonable efforts have been made to assure that all such Highly Confidential or Confidential information and any copies thereof, any and all records, notes, memoranda, summaries or other written material regarding the Highly Confidential or Confidential information (except for attorney work product and documents permitted to be retained by outside counsel as stated above), have been destroyed or delivered in accordance with the terms of this Order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

31. This Order shall be binding upon the parties to this Proceeding and signatories to the Certification, including their successor(s) and assigns, and their respective attorneys, agents, representatives, officers and employees.

32. This Order shall apply to all information and material produced in this Proceeding, including all previously produced information and material prior to the execution of this Order by the Court.

33. The parties acknowledge and agree that if any party hereto breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of any of the provisions of this Order, each non-breaching party shall have the right to ask the Court for the remedy, which remedy shall be in addition to and not in lieu of, any other remedies available to the non-breaching party under law or in equity, to have the Order specifically enforced (without posting any bond), including, without limitation, the right to an entry against the breaching party of restraining orders and injunctions (preliminary and permanent) against breaches, threatened or actual, it being agreed and acknowledged that, in the event of any such breach or threatened breach, the breaching party is not entitled to a presumption that money damages or legal remedies are sufficient or adequate to remedy such a breach.

34. By written agreement of the parties, or upon motion and order of the Court, the terms of this Order may be amended or modified.

35. This Order shall continue in force until amended or superseded by express order of the Court. This Order shall survive termination of this Proceeding, including any final judgment, appeal, or settlement to the extent the Highly Confidential or Confidential information is not or does not become known to the public.

36. Nothing in this Order shall prejudice the right of any party or third-party to oppose production of any information for lack of relevance, privilege, or any ground other than confidentiality.

37. In the event that a new party is added, substituted, or otherwise brought in to this Proceeding, this protective order will be binding on and inure to the benefit of the new party, subject to the right of the new party to seek relief from or modification of this protective order.

38. The entry of this Order does not prevent any party from seeking a further order of this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).
